

A collage of various print media items on a dark wooden desk. In the background, there's a vintage television set and a keyboard. In the foreground, there are several newspapers and magazines. One newspaper is titled 'Der Augenblick' and another 'Die Minute'. A magazine with the number '49' is also visible. A large, semi-transparent grey box with the word 'Demoversion' in a large, dark grey font is overlaid across the center of the image. Below this box, there are two more text boxes: a blue one with 'Printmedien' and a white one with 'Zeitungen, Zeitschriften, Magazine'.

Zeitungen, Zeitschriften, Magazine

A collage of electronic media. In the foreground, a vintage brown and silver radio sits on a dark surface. Behind it, a small television set displays a crowd of people. To the right, several newspapers are scattered, with one clearly showing the headline 'DIE ZEITUNG REGIERUNG VERSPRICHT STEUERSENKUN'. In the background, two computer monitors display blue code-like patterns. A large, stylized blue 'M' is also visible on the right side.

Demoversion

The background image is a blurred photograph of a lecture hall. In the upper center, there is a large, semi-transparent red hand icon with fingers spread, as if gesturing. Below it, a presentation slide is visible on a screen. The slide has a dark background with the word 'DIE...' in large, glowing blue letters. Below that, there is a red rectangular box containing the word 'Einflussnahme' in white text. In the bottom right corner of the slide, there is a small, faint image of a person. The overall scene is out of focus, emphasizing the text overlay.
